

Chamber Septic Systems

Chamber Systems - The new technology of "chambers" replaces conventional field lines. Chambers allow bottom and side-wall exposure without the hindrance of aggregate fill.

The first chamber is higher than the rest and fills with effluent first. Once filled, the excess effluent then over flows into the second and so on.

