

Peat Moss Systems

Peat Moss Systems are used when the field lines need to be above ground in cases where high water tables or the proximity of ground water tables exist.

Below you can see photos of a Peat Moss System that was installed then serviced by Dads Septic and Well Service. This system is a natural (environmentally friendly) system for cleaning and dispersing the effluent.

